

Expand Your Bike Event Coverage With Our Poster Contest

Do you have an eye catching poster being designed for your next bike event?

Here is your chance to gain more coverage and win advertising space in the HaveFunBiking media's. If your event designs a special poster to promote your bicycle ride or related bike event we would like to invite you to enter our poster contest here at HaveFunBiking.com. All entries will be displayed and judged at the, 3rd Annual Bike Summit and Active Living Bike Expo , April 23 & 24, 2010, at the Minnesota State Fairgrounds, in St Paul, Minn.

Each entry will be a winner! All entries will be viewed by thousands bike expo attendee, our judges, that attend the show here in Minnesota. And the electronic copy (j-peg) of your poster will accompany your calendar listing in our events section (see below) at HaveFunBiking.com.

The top 20 ranking posters selected by our judges will also be given editorial coverage at HaveFunBiking.com with a link to their website. The winning poster will receive a free column ad in our calendar events section, ad placement for one month in our e-Magazine (here you can reach our growing database with information, maybe your event registration deadline, going out to over 20,000 cycle enthusiast) and a quarter page (four color) ad in our 2011 Minnesota Event & Resource Guide.

No purchase is necessary to enter this poster contest, but entries must be received by April 19, 2010 and your bike event must be submitted in our calendar listing section at HaveFunBiking.com before the above date to be displayed and judged by our unbiased expo judges.

To Enter:

1. Please go to: <http://www.havefunbiking.com/mncyclist-event-submission-form.php> and fill out the event submission form for the event category your poster represents.
2. Send us a J-peg or a gif file of the poster to: editor@HaveFunBiking.com and we will include the artwork next to your event listing above. By sending us an electronic file of your poster you are also giving us permission to use the artwork in our promotions. Then mail us a print of your poster that we can display at the expo for thousands to judge and view your poster.
3. Preparing the poster for shipping, please include a cover letter with a short history of your event, your contact information and the artist who created the poster. Please include this same cover letter with the electronic file in #2. A signed copy of the poster is recommended, but not mandatory. No entries will be returned.

Mail/ship the poster before April 19, 2010 to:

*HaveFunBiking,
12753 Ethelton Way
St. Paul, MN 55124*

For more information or ad rates contact Russ Lowthian at: mntrip25@aol.com or 612-723-4511